

3. Acting & Performance - Who were the main performers in the production and how did they use their body, voice and expression to translate energy and emotion to the audience? Give two examples of things they did well, and at least one thing you believe they should improve.

4. Arrangement / Editing - Was the order of the show (song order, script, scenes or performances) set up well to keep the audience interested? Were there any parts you feel should have been rearranged, shortened, or presented more clearly? Explain the reasoning for your ideas, and why your suggestions might strengthen the show as a whole.

5. Overall Rating - What would you rate this production, out of 5 stars? Shade in the stars below to show your personal rating of the show, based on your experience.

optional...

FOR 3 ADDITIONAL UNITS: Write a ONE PAGE, DOUBLE SPACED review article of the production you attended. This should include a title (size 18 font), 3-5 clear paragraphs, and details to back up the ideas in your review. The style of your writing should mimic a film or play review in a modern day blog, newspaper, or magazine. Final articles should be typed in Times New Roman font, size 12, double spaced, and NOT include photos or word art.